REV. WILLIAM J. DURKIN

Rev. Willard W. Strahl

Strahl, Smith to Address Graduating MS Seniors

The Rev. Willard W. Strahl, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Fargo, will present the baccalaureate sermon at Moorhead State Teachers College Sunday, May 31. The service will be held at 8 p.m. in Weld auditorium. The Rev. Frederick S. Resch, pastor of St. John's the Divine Episco-

Activities are set at 10 a.m. in Weld auditorium.

Bachelor of science, bachelor of arts, associate in education, and associate in arts degrees will be conferred by Oscar B. Rusness, resident director of the Minnesota State Teachers College Board.

President O. W. Snarr will introduce the speakers and announce special awards. Candidates for associate degrees will be presented by Delsie Holmquist, director of lower divisions at the college. Dr. Byron D. Murray, director of upper divisions, will present candidates for the bachelor's degrees.

T. V. Smith

pal Church in Moorhead, will give the invocation and benediction.

The title of Rev. Strahl's sermon will be "Faith and Truth", and his scripture selection John 8: 31-32. Rev. Strahl came to Fargo in 1951 from a pastorate at Marinette, Wis. He previously held pastorates in Greeley, Col., and Minot, N. D. He is a graduate of the College of Wooster, at Wooster, Ohio, and McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago. Rev. Strahl has done graduate study at the University of Berlin in Germany and at Cornell University under fellowships. He was an instructor in philosophy at Princeton University for two years.

President O. W. Snarr will introduce the speaker at the service. A deans' coffee hour will be held in Ingleside Lounge for graduates, parents, and faculty members following the program.

Professor T. V. Smith of Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y., will give the main address at commencement activities at Moorhead State Teachers College, June 5. His topic will be "The Surplusage of Value".

Professor Smith has a national reputation as a speaker. He is the author of numerous books, has served in the state legislature of Illinois, and in the United States Congress as a representative from Illinois. Formerly, he was a professor of philosophy at the University of Chicago.

Rev. Fr. William J. Durkin of the Fargo Diocese of the Roman Catholic Church will give the invocation and benediction at the exercises which will graduate 146 MSTC students.

Faculty Members Approved for Sabbatical Leave; Three Return

ALLAN ERICKSON

....speech instructor

....history instructor

MARLOWE WEGNER

....industrial arts instructor

Sabbatical leaves have been approved for Allen Erickson, division of language and literature; Miss Dorothy Johnson, division of social studies; and Marlowe Wegner, department of industrial arts. These leaves are subject to approval by the state teachers college board which is largely a matter of formality, according to Dr. Snarr.

Erickson plans to go to the University of Oregon to work on his degree. Miss Johnson and Wegner have made no definite plans as yet.

Three faculty members who are now on leave of absence will be returning to MS next fall.

Nels Johnson, art instructor, is returning from leave of absence to teach during the second summer session. He has been attending the Pennsylvania

State college for work on his doctor's degree.

Otto Ursin, department of industrial arts, resumes teaching at MSTC this fall. He has been on leave of absence at Columbia University and the University of Missouri.

Miss Maude Wenck of the music department is returning from her studies at Columbia University to teach during the first summer session.

Interviews with resigning faculty members, Arthur Adelberg, and Dr. J. J. Valenti, appear on page 3 of this issue.

1953 'Dragon' Will Be Distributed Next Week

The 1953 Dragon will be distributed to the student body early next week.

The 112-page book is dedicated to the memory of the late Samuel Bridges, former head of the social studies department, who died last fall.

Honored also are the Outstanding Seniors who were selected in an election sponsored by the Dragon. Recognized by the members of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes are: Delores Anderson, Ralph Crews, Mac Dahl, George Easter, Orville Gran, Carl Hedstrom, Bill Ihlenfeldt, Joyce Jones, Keith Olson, and Duane Scribner.

The annual publication, which was edited by Arland Brusven, will feature a note of informality. The individual pictures of juniors, sophomores, and juniors of past years have been replaced by informal group photos; and included in the senior section are informal pictures of seniors who were honored in "Who's Who" and Outstanding Seniors.

Full page silhouettes, taken by Charles Olson, make up the opening section and the division pages.

Script and headlines were written by Shereen Erickson, associate editor; and the pictures were sorted and glued by Edna Mae Olson, class editor, and Lois Roseen, organizational editor.

The photography was done by Arland Brusven and Charles Olson with Karl Dyre and Verne Pladson assisting in the "dark room."

Kenneth Garland, business manager, was assisted by Loren Bakken, Dwaine Udseth, Darrell Schuetze, and Phillmer Tenney in the sale of advertising to Fargo-Moorhead merchants.

In addition to advertising, the yearbook is financed by an appropriation from the student activity fund.

Students who have been in attendance all three quarters will receive their copy free of additional charge. Students who have been at MSTC only two quarters during the past year will be assessed an additional $1.50 fee, and a $3.00 charge will be made to students who have been in attendance only one quarter.

Students are urged to watch the main bulletin board for an announcement of the hours when the book will be distributed in the publications office.

First Summer Session Classes Begin June 9

Final registration for the first session of summer school will be held Monday, June 8. Classes will begin Tuesday morning, June 9.

MSTC will offer courses on the graduate level for the first time this summer in addition to the usual undergraduate program.

Special attractions, beginning June 1, will highlight the summer program. A teachers guidance institute will be conducted June 1 through 6 with Mr. Ray Sorenson, MSTC placement director, acting as coordinator.

Audio-visual instructional materials institute will be given June 1 through 6 also, with Mr. Harold Addicott serving as coordinator.

A conference on an inventory of spiritual and moral resources has been scheduled for Monday, June 8. Included in this conference will be an address by Professor T. V. Smith, philosopher and educator from the University of Syracuse, Syracuse, N. Y.

A workshop on moral and spiritual values, which will deal with the role of the public school in achieving moral and spiritual objectives, will be offered June 8 through 18. Dr. G. D.

Robbins, director of the professional divisions will be coordinator and other members of the MSTC faculty will participate in the workshop.

Recitals by two pianists, Robert Pritchard and Percy Grainer, and a harpist, Lois Bannerman, will highlight the 1953 summer lyceum series.

Three courses in business education have been scheduled for the first session of summer school.

The classes now being offered are principles of accounting (business education 230), typing I (business education 210), and typing II (business education 211). They will be offered at 9 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 2 p.m. respectively.

Ralph Lee, instructor in business education, will be the teacher.

This is the first time that summer school courses have been offered in business at MS. Many students have requested such classes this year and in the past.

Some business education courses may be helpful to provisional elementary students after they take teaching positions.

From Convertible to Model T--

Catchy Cars Add Class to Campus

by Virginia Sorlie

MS has risen in the eyes of the world and Concordia with the addition of twin red convertibles to the collection of campus conveyances.

Cars are pretty important to the college. They are being used to go on shopping trips, to transport laundry home on weekends, to meet social and business obligations, not to mention a handy means to get from class in MacLean over to Weld.

Easily the favored type of transportation at MS is the convertible, probably because it has so many purposes, chief of which are: (1) to show off sun-tanned queen candidates; (2) to show off sun-tans; and (3) to show off.

The assortment of vehicles at MS ranges from the shiny student-owned jobs to the slightly worn, violent-sounding affairs of which no more is expected than that they get the instructors to class in the morning and home again at night.

Our newest addition—latest addition, that is—is a black Model T last seen being pushed around the circle by six men in red jackets. Don't tell me that doesn't add class to the joint!

They can't say we're too high class though. The occasional Cadillac that enters the circle usually goes right on around, and out again.

In most cases our dads make it possible for us to have a way to get to the golf course, or downtown for a hamburger. MS students have justified their folks' faith in them by a very low rate of accidents.

The fortunate car-owners have a friendly spirit of co-operation they almost always stop to give a ride to the "peasants" waiting for a bus. Let's keep on with our good driving policy.

(Anyone know where three co-eds could find a good used car — $75 limit?)

Virginia Sorlie Selected to Edit Summer 'Midget MiSTiC'

Virginia Sorlie, Churches Ferry, N. Dak., has been selected by the Student Commission to edit the Midget MiSTiC during summer school.

Formerly news editor of the Red and Green, student newspaper at the State teachers college at Minot, N. Dak., Miss Sorlie is now feature editor of the MiSTiC.

The Midget MiSTiC will be published weekly, except for test weeks, during both sessions.

MiSTiC Applauds Year's Superior Achievements

Today's MiSTiC marks the end of the twenty-ninth year of MiSTiC publication. Today also marks the final day of classes for the current regular school year. Final tests on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, June 1, 2, and 3, and graduation exercises on Friday, June 5 wind up the year's activities.

With this issue, the MiSTiC makes its honorary awards and for outstanding services and achievements. Our congratulations:

To the graduating seniors and sophomores at the completion of their college lives. Your contributions of talents, loyalty, and enthusiasm will remain as witnesses of the place which each of you has made at MSTC;

To the members of the faculty who are leaving us. You leave with the assurance that your knowledge and guidance have proved invaluable to the students who have benefited from your teaching;

To the Student Commission for the completion and institution of the revised Constitution. This, without a doubt, stands out as a decided step forward in student government;

To the football and baseball teams and their coaches for an successful seasons;

To the persons responsible for the excellent job on public relations work. The success of this project is reflected in both the increased freshman enrollment, and in the improved spirit within the college. These two improvements decidedly distinguish the

Commission Minutes

The Student Commission met on Monday evening, May 25, at 7 p.m. in the Student Commission room.

Those present were Ed Raymond, Pat Ferris, Merlin Erickson, Jerry Miksche, Donna Canning, Don Short, Donna Rea Pender, Bruce Reski, and Mrs. Grantham.

The meeting was called to order by President Eddie Raymond.

Discussion was held on the coming orientation week, the all-college talent show, and the freshman talent show. Bruce Reski will be in charge of the talent show. Jack Wilcox will have charge of all-college pep fest.

Also discussed were the possible bands for the future Christmas and Homecoming formal.

It was moved and seconded that a Midget MiSTiC be continued for the summer sessions.

Merlin Erickson raised a question as to the funds for bands and foods in the future.

The commission discussed the possibility of dismissing school early for the baseball games.

1952-53 school year as one of growth and progress;

And finally, to the MiSTiC staff members past and present, who are leaving us. To Duane Scribner, whose editorship of the MiSTiC in 1951 resulted in a paper of superior quality, and whose experience and advice has since been of great benefit to the MiSTiC; to Keith Olson, whose "Through the Keyhole" comments and wittisims have long provided topics for conversation and have provided a touch of humor brightening many MiSTiCs.

To all of you, our thanks and wishes for future successes.

'So Much to See in F-M, You Just Can't See All of It,' Says Purcell

by Tim O'Rourke

Well, Vic, what will you say if I ask you why you came out here to school?

"Oh, I've got a song and dance for that—"

Good. Let's get some statistics down first.

"Born August 2, 1931, New York City. Educated in the New York public schools...small high school...about 4,000 students. That's about it."

How about out here?

"Broad English major, broad social studies minor. B.S. curriculum."

Activities?

"Basketball, baseball, plays, Student Commission, MiSTiC, Sigma Tau Delta English frat."

Placement Concentrated In Two-State Area

Of the 78 MS graduates who have accepted teaching positions for the school year of 1953-54, all but one are concentrated in the Minnesota-North Dakota area. To date, 58 placements have been made in Minnesota, 14 in North Dakota, and one in Wyoming.

The list of graduates and their prospective locations includes:

Dak.; Art Olson, Williams.

Editor of the Literary Designs that just came out, weren't you? Also obviously some creative writing activity. Anything else?

"Guess not."

Okay. Now—why did you pick STC, Vic?

"Well, I was a mid-year grad in high school. I planned to go to work to make some money for college, but jobs weren't too easy to get. I kind of enjoyed not working. But time kept passing and I wasn't making any money or anything, and finally my folks got mad. They said I had to go to school, so we went down to the library to look at catalogs."

And out of all those you just accidentally picked MS?

"Not quite. I knew a little about Moorhead — had some relatives up at East Grand Forks. When my mother heard the idea, she was all for it. They decided it would be a good idea to try it for a year and see if I liked it here. I...uh...liked it so well I stayed."

What's the big difference between here and there?

"It's a smaller school, and you get more recognition for the things you do. People seem a lot more interested in you, too. I'm not sure, but I think the standards might be a little higher in the East."

Any gripes about this place?

"The people I really get mad at are the ones who say, 'Oh, I'd like to go to New York someday. Just for a visit, of course, not to live there!'

And people who think there isn't anything to do in Fargo-Moorhead gripe me too. There's so much stuff you can't see all of it. Even to see part of it you have to budget your time."

How about a testimonial...what has the college done for you? Anything?

"Dr. Cater was the biggest influence. She sort of got me going."

Uh huh...did you do any writing before you came out here, Vic?

"No. None. Except in English classes."

Let's see...what are you planning after you leave here?

"What do you think? I prefer the Army."

After that?

"I'd like to go to grad school — maybe Minnesota. Somewhere it'd be nice to pick up a language. Not Korean, though."

And after that?

"I hate to say it, but I think I'd like to teach. Not at MSTC, though. Somewhere else in the Midwest."

Any women in your life?

"Sure, but there aren't any plans yet. That'll wait a while."

How about a word to the wise to end this thing with?

"You can say TV stinks."

Then why is it so popular?

"Probably because it's on such a low level."

Oh, Well, you can see this in the paper Friday.

"Yeh. I can hardly wait."

I'll bet.

THROUGH THE KEYHOLE By The Public Eye

At about this time it is customary for people who write in college newspapers to look back over their four, five, or six years of college education and with nostalgic wanderings, hot tears, and sentimental reminiscence, deliver the expected words of wisdom.

In this column the last requirement is out of order and I refuse to fulfill the others. The only thing to which I will admit is the fine job college has done in keeping me out of work for several years. I am looking forward to the armed forces for the same service. After that who knows. Maybe they'll still have a GI bill.

How many times have you heard this beginning in a class room?

"Well, I don't know, but...."

The marriage fatality rate at MS TC is approximately eleven people every school year. However, the amount of actual damage done can only be estimated. According to figures, the months of April and May share the greatest responsibility.

It was 8:30 a.m. The two sat nodding over their coffee. One raised his head slightly and asked, "How many courses you carrying this term? The other was silent for a moment, then answered, "I'm carrying one and dragging three."

From such stuff are spring quarters made.....

Final addition to the ladies department of the Dragon Dictionary:

Mystery — a women who won't talk.

One of our faculty members holds that the saying "God takes care of children and fools" may account for the large number of graduates.

Come now, don't disillusion us so soon.

Last Wednesday people decided to wear caps and gowns.

Come on kids, let's all get together and dress up and walk around and have all sorts of fun.

The right kind of look will break things. Just think of the young men who go broke because of the looks of some women.

Adelberg Leaves MSTC For Circle Pines Position

by Rhoda Senechal

Circle Pines, Minnesota, elementary school as of now has a brand new superintendent and principal by name of Arthur Adelberg.

Adelberg, formerly supervisor of the campus high elementary school, became acquainted with the vacancy at Circle Pines through a friend of a friend, and accepted the position a short time ago.

A new, modern elementary school, Circle Pines boasts some 500 pupils and is growing steadily. Adelberg feels that many positions will be open for MSTC graduates in the future.

Not one to keep good fortune to himself, Mr. Adelberg has already hired four graduating MSTC people for positions in the school. They are Virginia Coleman, Ruth Peterson, Mary Ann Hay, and Orville Gran.

Adelberg will leave MSTC right after graduation to acquaint himself with his new job, which will consist of administrative work entirely.

He has enjoyed his stay at MSTC very much, commenting that he has met some very interesting people — both among faculty and student teachers.

Adelberg, however, was certain from the beginning of the advisability of the change; for he firmly believes in switching positions frequently.

He is looking for something bigger and better," — for every move you make you advance yourself."

Music Notes from

Across the Circle

by Jan Levenson

Budding pianists, students of Alice Bartels, exhibited their talent Wednesday afternoon in a recital in the choir room at Weld hall.

Appearing on the program were Jeanne Gelder playing "To Spring" by Grieg; Angeline Vraa — "Artists Life" by Strauss as arranged by Thompson; Una Orud — "Rustles of Spring" by Sinding; Janice Hess — "Humoresque" by Rachminoff; Nancy Brandt — "Lento" from "Two Pierrot Pieces" by Cyril Scott; Janet Stedman — "Fugue in B Flat" by Bach and "Children At Play" by Roy Harris; and Lois Aamot — "Praeludium" by Mendelssohn.

Punch and cookies were served after the recital.

Carolyn Levenson was the recent recipient of a cash award for her participation in music and other activities as a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music fraternity.

"The Elijah" and the band concert are over, and the final appearance of the music department for this year will be over when the choir — minus seniors — sings for Baccalaureate Sunday night.

Last Tuesday night's band concert, which was the final MS band concert played by the graduating members, was also the director's farewell appearance with the MSTC band. Next year Ray Votopka will be teaching near Indiana State and working on his doctorate.

Congratulations to the graduates, and particularly to Lois Aamot, Carolyn Levenson, Dewey Possehl, Mary Rumreich, and Alex Stoffel, music majors and minors. We're really going to miss you. Things just won't be the same without Lois' piano playing and singing in ensembles, Snookie's vocal solos, Dewey on trumpet, Mary accompanying someone or soloing or playing the organ for convo. Who'll play oboe next year? And who will we get who can double on trombone, French horn, bass, baritone, saxophone, clarinet — (you name it, he plays it)?

The Fine Arts Centre has completed its schedule of concerts for the year, and so farewell, music lovers, from that place across the circle, Weld hall.

'MS Educational Program Excellent; Decision to Leave Difficult to Make'

by Rhoda Senechal

"The decision to leave was a very difficult one to make. I have always had very good relations with the high school and college here, and the students and teachers alike have been very cooperative. I feel also that the educational program in this school is excellent."

His intent, serious face proving beyond any doubt that he meant every word, Dr. Valenti expressed sincere regret at leaving MSTC for his new post as assistant professor of educational administration in the graduate school of Loyola University of Chicago.

Culminating his studies on leadership in administration in business, political science, and education, Dr. Valenti is leaving MSTC to write on this subject with a friend and college associate, Dr. Charles Nelson, of the industrial relations division of the department of sociology of the University of Chicago, under the sponsorship of the Henry Holt publishing company.

The book is an out growth of several years of work and many years of interest in the subject of leadership. Dr. Valenti has worked with John Jenkins, Werner Brand, and T. Edison Smith here at MSTC on the same subject in connection with the Midwest Administration Center at the U. of Chicago, the Kellogg Company, and the Western Division of the MEA.

Dr. Valenti, who received his PHD at the U. of Chicago, did his masters work at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, and did his undergraduate studies in New York City. is planning on settling just outside of Chicago, and would like to make the Midwest his permanent home.

That he has enjoyed his work here is obvious by the smile on his face as he talks of the school; that students and faculty here have enjoyed having him as a co-worker is also obvious; but they together feel that Dr. Valenti is taking a very important step forward in what is certain to be a successful career.

Murphy, Alumni President, Will Speak at MS High Graduation

Commencement exercises for 21 MSTC high school seniors will be held Wednesday, June 3, at 8 p.m. in Weld auditorium.

Vincent Murphy, the commencement speaker, has chosen "Hope-1953" as the topic of his address. Mr. Murphy, a graduate of MSTC, is the president of the local alumni association.

Dr. Claydon Robbins, director of the laboratory schools, will extend a welcome to relatives and friends of the graduates.

Charles Bartholomew, highest ranking senior, will present the valedictory speech.

Mary Rumreich will play the processional and recessional music. Other music will be provided by the girls ensemble, the senior chorus, and Carol Erjavec, vocal soloist.

Dr. Jasper J. Valenti, principal of the high school, will present the senior class for graduation and also the national honor awards.

President O. W. Snarr will conclude the exercises by awarding diplomas to the graduating students.

MS Wins Second Conference Championship; Down Jimmies

The Dragons showed that they could be rough when the chips are down by taking a doubleheader from the Jamestown Jimmies and walking off with an undisputed conference championship.

Brilliant play afield and the two hit pitching of Hugh Schoepoerster were enough to ekk out a 1-0 victory and take the pressure off the spirited Dragons.

Hugh retired the first 13 men that faced him before waiking his first and only man or the game.

The Dragons, showing more hustle than ever before this year, gave Schoepoerster errorless support. Don Peterson and Mac Dahl came up with six beautiful plays that helped move the Dragons to their second conference title. Don Chizek, speedy MS centerfielder loked very good on three balls he had to haul in.

The Dragons had to capitalize on three Jimmy errors to get their run in the second inning. Red Gran led off with a single to center and moved to second when Hedstrom got life on an error. John Torgerson then pushed one down to shortstop who bobbled the ball and over threw first which enabled "Red" to score.

Just so there wouldn't be any question of the title, the Dragons kept right on moving and took the second game 6-3.

Moochy Varriano was on the mound for MS and won his third game without a loss.

Reno Pallas gave MS a little punch by smacking a home run in the second inning to give them a 2-1 lead that was never relinquished.

Highlights of the game were the triple steal led by Mac Dahl in the sixth inning, and Jere Cooper's play to end the game. With the score 6-3 with men on first and second and one out, a ball was hit sharp to Cooper. The Fort Benton senior tagged the runner going to second and threw to Pallas at first for a game ending double play.

The Dragons were out-hit in this game 7-6, but they made good use of the seven walks issued to them.

The Ferris Wheel

The "M" Club banquet last night marked the end of a long athletic season for the various teams at MSTC.

Dragon athletics for this school year started at Valley City teachers college on September 12 when Ron Noesen, 150-pound speedster from Detroit Lakes, picked up four touchdowns to pace the under-rated MSTC football team to a 27-6 victory.

A two week stay at training camp prior to this game proved to be very helpful in getting the Dragons in shape. Coach Fritz Bierhaus and his co-captains Bill Ihlenfeldt and Ralph Crews did a splendid job of putting the boys through their drills.

At the half time mark of the MS TC - Concordia game the score was 6-6, but it soon rose on behalf of the Cobbers as they over-manned the Dragons. In this game, Norm Pryzbilla and Jim Johnson showed their explosive power in the line, but were unable to score.

The Concordia "jinx" has been on the Dragon teams for around 15 years now. It is about time that it disappeared.

The Dragons moved into conference play with a 19-9 win over Bemidji. Keith Olson, the light senior scampier, netted two of the Dragon touchdowns to account for his best performance of the year.

A St. Cloud Teacher's football team with a 1952 championship and a "Mangle the Moorhead Monster" slogan marched onto the field the following Saturday to defend their homecoming honor and try to defeat the Dragons.

The "Moorhead Monster," under the coaching of Fritz Bierhaus, proved that they did not want to be mangled as they nipped the St. Cloud team 13-12. Norm Pryzbilla's touchdown run in the final period, and a stubborn Dragon line made the difference between victory and defeat.

The two rugged Varriano brothers, Leonard and Moochy, pulled the Dragon line together and it remained impenetrable during the last six minutes of play.

Harvey Stewart's homecoming slogan, "KO Kato," failed to hold true as the Mankato Indians tripped the Dragons, 19-7, in the MSTC homecoming game on Memorial Field.

The Dragons ended their season by walloping Jamestown, 27-7, in a game at Jamestown.

When the all-conference selectives came out in the papers, nine MSTC players found their names on the list for outstanding play during the season.

Harold Sussenguth, voted most valuable player by his team mates, Ronnie Noesen, Bill Ihlenfeldt were place in the first team, while Eddie Raymond, Jere Cooper, and Norman Pryzbilla gained spots on the second roster.

Ralph Crews, Leonard Varriano, and Orville Gran were given honorable mention.

Many of the football players turned in their shoulder-pads for a pair of tennis shoes when basketball season started.

Bob Roysland and Carl Hedstrom were chosen as co-captains by their teammates, but Bob had to leave for service with Uncle Sam during the latter part of the season.

The Dragons completed their 1952-53 basketball season with a record of four wins and twenty losses. Although the team won only four games throughout the season, they looked good at times.

The bright spot of the season was the sensational 72-71 upset win over North Dakota State in the round-robin tournament held at NDAC December 29 and 30.

John Torgeson was the main basketball standout this year. He averaged 16 points a game with a total of 384 for the season. Of these, he had 146 field goals and 92 free throws. He has also been chosen as captain of next year's squad.

Wrestling became a major sport at MSTC this year under the student coaching of Pat Ferris and the faculty supervision of T. Edison Smith. Although no records for victory were broken, many of the boys did a fine job considering the fact that it was their first year at the sport.

Those winning letters in wrestling included Jerome Lague, Pat Benedict, Jerry Kruta, Pat Ferris, Pete Lague, Lee Johnson, and Ron Hannay.

Intramurals played an important part in the athletic program of the year too. The Dawgs won the touch football league, while the Mitz's Blitz won the basketball tourney. The Cellar Dwellers played an undefeated season to win the intramural volleyball league.

As Fritz Bierhaus winds up a successful track season, and as the Dragon baseball team moves towards another Gorman Trophy, we look ahead to next fall's football season and wonder.

Dragons, Cobbers Split Two-Game Series, 3-1, 9-1

An even split was all the Dragons could obtain from their closet rival from across the graveyard.

In the single game on Monday, Jack Wilcox pitched and hit the Dragons to a 3-1 win and clinched a tie for the Steve Gorman Trophy Title. Wilcox smacked a home run in the second inning with the walking Mac Dahl on base to provide the games winning margin. Bob Thompson singled home Don Chizek who had doubled in the fifth inning for an insurance run.

Wilcox, pitching with only one day rest, was very tough in the clutch. Having to pitch one of the 6-0 shut-outs at Mayville Saturday night, Jack was not in the form of other games he had pitched this year. Three times he had to pitch himself out of holes that could have been fatal for the Dragons.

The Cobbers found out just how tough Wilcox could be when they threatened in the last of the seventh. Ken Severud, ace moundsman for Concordia, lead off with a single, his second hit of the game, and took second on a passed ball. Wilcox then got pinch hitter Foss on a third strike. Earl Stein got life on an error and it looked as if a rally was in the making, but Wilcox pushed a third strike, passed Syverson and got Kuball to ground out short to first.

Both clubs collected six hits. Don Chizek and Bob Thompson got two hits apiece for MS while Kerlin and Severud, the Cobber battery, picked up five of the six hits.

Mac Dahl gave Wilcox some good support afield by making three long throws to cut down runners.

CONCORDIA TAKES SECOND GAME

In the second game, MS had one of those bad days that every ball club suffers at one time or another.

Hugh Schoepoerster started on the hill for the Dragons and had to give way to Eddy Raymond in the second inning. In this inning the Cobbers banged out four straight hits including a home run by Bob Johnson, the pitcher, for four runs. They went on to score two more in the fourth and one in the fifth for a total of nine.

The Dragons on the other hand could get to Johnson for only one run in the third inning. It was not the case of the pitching being so tough or the fact that only two Dragons went down on strikes, but everything they hit was right to the opposition.

Concordia banged out ten hits and MS only four. Two of the four were by Raymond.

Len Varriano's.385 Tops Dragon Batting Averages

Six men piled up batting averages over .300. The averages were figured on the basis of ten at bats.

Name	AB	H	Av.
L. Varriano	26	10	.385
Gran	34	12	.353
Thompson	17	6	.353
Wilcox	16	5	.315
Iverson	36	11	.306
Chizek	36	11	.306
Burgess	17	5	.294
Pryzbilla	13	3	.230
Torgerson	18	4	.222
Pallas	14	3	.213
Cooper	46	8	.174
Dahl	26	4	.154
Olson	13	2	.153
Schoepoerster	13	2	.083

The team average for the year was .268.

The pitchers' records are as follows.

Donna Thomas Wins Archery Tournament

Donna Thomas won first place in the WAA archery tournament last Tuesday by shooting a total of 360 points, the highest total ever made during the ten years that the tournament has been held.

Second place winner was Vivian Floberg with 349 points; third place, Betty Brenna, with 348 points; and fourth place, Sharlene Henning, with 327 points.

Last year's winner was Pat Thomas, a sister of the present winner. Both girls are from Barnesville.

	W	L
Varriano	3	0
Schoepoerster	4	1
Raymond	2	1

Bill Iverson lead the team in the home run department with three followed by Gran with two, and Burgess, Hedstrom, Chizek, Wilcox and Pryzbilla with one each. Only three triples were hit over the course of the season. Cooper, Peterson, and Iverson had one each. In doubles, Red Gran picked up five followed by Chizek with four, Varriano with three, and Thompson with two.

Next year's squad will miss four seniors, Captain Mac Dahl, Red Gran, Jere Cooper, and Bob Thompson.

MSTC STUDENTS: Thank you for being such good customers. If you're going to be around this summer, we'll be here to serve you; if you're going home or traveling, we'll be waiting to welcome you back next fall. To the graduates, we extend our congratulations and best wishes for whatever you choose to do.

MOORHEAD DAIRY QUEEN

Crews Advises, 'Football Helps Build Character'

by Pat Ferris

I stepped into the bookstore the other day and approached an elderly-looking fellow who was leaning on the candy counter. I asked him rather timidly, "How old are you, dad? Ralph Crews smiled like a ripe watermelon and replied, "I was born in 1925 in Cheyenne, Wyoming; you can figure the rest out by yourself."

As I talked to this representative and Who's Who senior, I learned that he lived in Cheyenne through the tenth grade. During this time he played four years of varsity football and basketball.

During his junior year Ralph's father bought a resort near Pelican Rapids. Ralph then attended school at Pelican Rapids high school where he continued to play varsity football and basketball. He also picked up a new interest which he has never lost (he is now engaged).

Before coming to MSTC, Ralph spent three years in the United States Navy serving in the Philippines and other Pacific bombardments during the war.

When he came to MSTC in 1948, he tried out for the Dragon grid team. It so happens that he was the only freshman to win a letter in football at MSTC that year.

Today, Ralph is the only senior at MSTC who has won four letters in football.

Although "Dad" has no special interest in dramatics or debate, he is still reliable to keep things rolling at a party or a frat meeting. He has been Father Owl of the Owl fraternity for the past two years.

While Dunie was working on his broad major in English and his major in physical education, he found time to be vice president of the senior class, the 1951 Homecoming parade chairman, president of the bookstore board of directors, president of the Ballard Hall Counsel, and co-captain of this year's championship football squad.

Ralph plans to teach after graduation next week. He will also be junior high athletic director in Montevideo.

Football and athletics have taken up most of Ralph's time, but he believes that they have given him a wonderful chance to participate with the fellows, and really get to know them.

As far as football goes, Ralph gives this advice, "Football will help to build character whether you're on the A, B, or C squad, so go out for football and stick it out till the end of the season."

Committees in charge of the breakfast are: reservations—Janice Sargent and Audrey Len; menu—Janice Sargent; decorations—Rachel Briggs; guest—Barbara Martin and Rhoda Senecal; program—Cordelia Sahlberg and Eileen Lindberg; and invitations—Eileen Palmer and Janet Swanson.

The Gamma Nu sorority will have a 4 p.m. luncheon, Thursday, June 4, in the Colonial Room of the Gardner Hotel. Pat Sullivan is general chairman of the luncheon and committees include: table decorations—Donna Fugleberg, chairman; Donna Lindgren; and Glynice Eggum; programs—Norma Hoving, chairman; Nancy Bergan; and Ardell Lupke. Shirley Geddes is in charge of invitations to alums and patronesses.

Parents of the graduates will be invited to attend the graduation breakfast for the Pi Mu Phi sorority which will be held in the Gopher Grill on Friday June 5. Nancy Savelle, Nancy Holgate, and Barbara Eckles are in charge of decorations. Betty Deike, Janice Meier, Virginia Sorlie, and Lois Leervig are in charge of invitations.

ALUM NEWS GRADS RECEIVE NAVAL COMMISSIONS

Two recent MSTC graduates, Robert Carlson and John Nordstrom, were among the 837 men graduating with the rank of Ensign from the Navy's officer candidate school at Newport, Rhode Island, May 8.

Robert Carlson, Wolverton, graduated in 1952. He was a member of the Owl fraternity while attending MS. John Nordstrom, Fargo, N. Dak., was a 1949 graduate.

These men in four months of intensive study and training have covered the same Naval subjects that college NROTC students do in four years. Foremost in their study was gunnery, navigation, seamanship, engineering, damage control and operations.

These new officers will join other OCS graduates already serving on every type of combatant and non-combatant ship in the fleet.

FORMER STUDENT ENTERS TRAINING PROGRAM

Paul F. Hanssen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanssen, Pelee Rapids, has been accepted into the Naval Aviation Cadet program. Hanssen, a former MS student, was sworn into the Navy's flight training program at the Naval air station at Minneapolis, and will be ordered to the "Annapolis of the Air" at Pensacola, Fla., in the near future.

'46 GRAD AWARDED DEGREE AT UNIVERSITY

Niles Henry Jefferson, Moorhead, a 1946 graduate of MSTC, was awarded a master of science degree at commencement exercises at the University of Minnesota, March 19.

Six-Week Television and Radio School Established by Dr. Posin

A television and radio school has been established by Dr. Daniel Q. Posin, the chairman of the physics, at the NDAC.

The school, which offers varied courses in television and radio, will be in operation for the six weeks from June 15 through July 27. Classes will be held in either the day or evening to accommodate persons interested. MSTC students interested in any of the courses are invited to apply. A moderate fee will be charged.

Typical classes will be held Mondays and Wednesdays, 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in a centrally-located studio in down-town Fargo.

Television and radio classes will be offered on three levels:

1. The non-technical level for laymen and persons who are curious about TV as a personal interest. Men, women, and college students, as well as any one else with a general interest are eligible to take this course:

2. The semi-technical level for those who have had some experience in radio or electricity and wish to learn TV in order make a practical application of their knowledge. This level will be of interest and value to prospective TV service-men, high school science teachers, and technically-minded college students;

3. The technical level is planned for TV service-men and persons about to become TV service-men. This level teaches the theory and application of color TV and three-dimensional TV among other things. A certificate of completion will be issued at the end of the course.

The lectures in all the courses will be supplemented by demonstrations, experiments, laboratory work, and many instructional movies on TV principles and operation. A special feature of the courses will be a visit to WDAY television studios for study of broadcasting equipment, operational procedures, and studio work.

The lectures will be conducted by Dr. Posin, assisted by a staff of television personnel and technicians.

As these classes are limited in size, persons interested are urged to apply at once. Applications may be written or by telephone. Telephone applications may be made to Dr. Posin during the day at 6411, and in the evening, at 2-3045.

Television School Application

Dr. Posin, NDAC Fargo: I would like to enroll in the TV Course. Please reserve a place for me, and place me in group number..... My experience is:
